Election Talk Is Causing Politics to Warm Up Now

Rumor Sets November 22nd As Day For Polling in Alberta

WOMEN'S VOTE GIVEN AS THE "REASON" NOW

Provincial election talk is again in the air and there seems to be a general impression in political circles that the Sifton government has about decided to go before the electorate of Alberta this fall with a request for a new mandate to govern the province. The latest "dope" on the situation is that Wednesday, November 22, has been decided on as polling day and that the writs will be issued on or about the first of the month.

It is considered very significant that there has been no direct denial from ministers of the statement that an election was planned and members of the government when asked the question point blank have confessed themselves to indefinite generalities instead of positive denials.

THE "EXCUSE"

The Sifton government's term of office does not expire until 1918 and those who follow politics have been considerably puzzled to know what excuse the government would give for calling an election at this time, especially as the country is at war and everybody is more or less busy with patriotic work of some description. It is now stated that the "reason" is given for throwing the country into a political turmoil will be the claim that the women of the province are not represented in the legislature and now that women have the right to vote it is not fair to them to have the affairs of the province conducted by a house elected by mere men only. This is current rumor in Calgary, although of course it cannot be confirmed in any way.

ACTIVITY AMONG WORKERS

There is marked activity in underground Liberal machine circles, with candidates and near-candidates showing a tendency to get better acquainted with their neighbors, and rumors of nomination conventions. The Conservatives thus far have taken no action. They feel that an election held at this time is not a necessity, and is merely the result of the desires of the Liberals to play as safe as they can.

It is also rumored that the government will be willing to "saw off" the constituencies represented by members now on active service. This would mean that five present Conservative members and six Liberal members would be returned without a contest.

A BITTER FIGHT

But in the other ridings they are prepping, and are said to be fully prepared for a bitter contest when the time arrives. Especially bitter will be their fight against Dr. Stanley, of High River. News has been received from that district that a decision is to be made against the doctor. The Conservative members are united in declaring that they do not want an election. It will interfere

QUEBEC WILL GIVE MILLION DOLLARS TO PATRIOTIC FUND

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—Sir Lomer Gouin premier of Quebec, in a letter to His Royal Highness the Governor General, states that the government of the province of Quebec will subscribe one million dollars to the Patriotic Fund Sir Thomas White, honorary secretary, has written Sir Lomer expressing appreciation for this generous and patriotic contribution.

Calgary, October 14. Cattle. Prices for choice beef-cowled steady, $10.50 going for 100 steers, about $5.60 for fat heifers and $2.40 for ewes. Call Money Cheap In New York; Funds Shipped to London

New York, Oct. 6.—Between $75,000,000 and $100,000,000 in banking funds, bankers here estimate, has been transferred from New York to London this week and the movement is still under way.

Call money was lent in New York yesterday as low as 2 per cent, bank rates continued at the same level. It is almost impossible to make customary profits on call loans. For this reason they have been putting out money on call in London for some time.

The high mark on time money in this market yesterday was only 3 1/2 per cent, and the low was 2 per cent. Local bankers say that they can get as high as 5 1/2 per cent. on time loans in Great Britain.

DO YOU IMAGINE

that your skin trouble is incurable because ordinary treatments have failed? If so get Zam-Buk and prove, as thousands of others, that Zam-Buk is capable of healing after everything else has failed! Mrs. Morgan, of 153 Manning Ave., Toronto, writes: "For eight months my little son's face was simply covered with eczema. The pain and irritation were so intense that he could not sleep. He received treatment at a hospital, but it did him no good. Then I heard of Zam-Buk and commenced using it. It really worked wonders. The pain and irritation soon disappeared, and I could notice a decided improvement. I persevered with the treatment until now his face is quite free from areas and his skin is perfectly clear. I cannot be grateful enough for what Zam-Buk has done, and I shall never be without it."

Zam-Buk is equally good for ringworm, rheum, blood-poisoning, dandruff, cold sores, piles, burns, scalds, ulcers and all skin injuries. 50c. box, 3 for $1.25, all druggists or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

OUTRAGED DECENCY

The air is full of talk of an election and the Nifon Government is said to be about to appeal to the people. Last year there was talk of the Dominion Government holding an election, but owing to the strong opposition by Liberals, who claimed that it would be an outrage owing to the war, the government agreed to postpone the contest.

Now these very people who howled so strongly against an election last year are in favor of appealing to the people because they think it would be to their advantage to do so.

It would be an everlasting disgrace on the fair name of Alberta to plunge the province into a political turmoil, just when thousands of our brave sons are giving up their lives on the battle fields of Flanders, when the Angel of Death is hovering over our homes, when hundreds of telegrams are arriving daily to relations of dear ones, as never before in the history of the province, when the prayers of multitudes ascend for their protection, just to suit the whim of a few political tricksters who are possessed with a Hunnish lust of power.

It seems impossible, incredible, except that the government intend to traffic on the loyalty and the blood of our sons and snatch a verdict from the people by the support of an element that is not in sympathy with either the loyal Liberals or loyal Conservatives of this fair province.

SIR WILFRID AND QUEBEC

Who has not heard Sir Wilfrid Laurier's famous phrase, "It would be a crime and a suicide to drive Canada into the vortex of European militarism?" And later, in 1906, who was it that denounced the purchase of rifles for the Canadian militia, if it was not Sir Wilfrid Laurier, his lieutenants and their Quebec press? Later still, who took the attitude that Canada could not send troops to aid the Motherland in South Africa? Who boasted of resisting the Imperial Conferences project of organizing the military and naval forces of the Empire? Who uttered the pernicious doctrine of Colonial Neutrality?

For more than thirty years the Liberal Party has had a marked ascendancy in the Province of Quebec. The Liberal Party, in power or in opposition, has had a majority there since 1866. Who then is to come today a large proportion of the people of that province give ear to the Separatist and Nationalist doctrines of demagogues like Bourassa?

Who prepared the soil for Bourassa's crop of Nationalism? Nor have Liberal leaders in Quebec since the beginning of the war risen to their duties and responsibilities as leaders of their people. It is true that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has spoken at two or three meetings, and if for no other reason than political safety in the rest of Canada, probably seeks to bring his Quebec lieutenants to an appearance of more just appreciation of the responsibilities of the moment, but from none of them, with one or two exceptions, has been given support. On the contrary it is a notorious and disturbing fact that in the last provincial election the Gouin

Government allied itself with Bourassa and Lavergne, and upon hostility to recruiting became the policy of the bulk of the Liberal candidates. It is with the knowledge of these facts that Bourassa is enabled to declare that his attitude is not unlike that of the Quebec leaders of the Liberal party. Canada requires today the fruit of the seeds that were sown in the days when politicians trilled with liberty in their zeal for a "solid Quebec." Henri Bourassa was an apt pupil of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and if in the last election the Liberal leader was less successful than usual, it was because Bourassa had out-gunned Laurier. Bourassa today clings to the doctrine of anti-Imperialism that Laurier for nearly a quarter of a century taught Quebec to believe in.

MAKE THE WEALTHY ONES PAY

Under this head the Calgary News Telegram shows how our wealthy neighbors to the south of the border can be made to bear part of the burden the people of Canada are carrying at the present time. It says:

Exceptional prosperity, created by the war, has so increased the volume of advertising in the United States that the American newspapers are clamoring for Canadian newsprint so loudly that the cost-of-white paper promises to be enormously raised to Canadian publishers. After British money has created the prosperity in the U.S., which is really at the root of the American newspaper shortage, it looks rather unjust to shoulder the load upon the Canadian publishers and Canadian people after we have made the war money millions. Canadian newspapers should be given an adequate supply of newsprint at a reasonable price. After that Uncle Sam can have what he wants. But he should pay an export duty on every pound of it. Last year the U.S. imported from Canada 500,000,000 pounds of pulpwood. An export tax of one cent per pound on that would raise $5,000,000 for the Canadian Patriotic fund. And the revenue would come out of the big newspapers in a country which is growing rich from war contracts placed by Britain and her Allies. Eight million dollars of American money going into the Canadian government coffers would feed the wife and children of many a patriotic Canadian who has offered his life for his country. It is a proposal which should be considered very carefully by the Dominion government.

CANADA'S SECOND WAR LOAN A REALLY NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENT

The phenomenal success of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's famous phrase, "It would be a crime and a suicide to drive Canada into the vortex of European militarism?" And later, in 1906, who was it that denounced the purchase of rifles for the Canadian militia, if it was not Sir Wilfrid Laurier, his lieutenants and their Quebec press? Later still, who took the attitude that Canada could not send troops to aid the Motherland in South Africa? Who boasted of resisting the Imperial Conferences project of organizing the military and naval forces of the Empire? Who uttered the pernicious doctrine of Colonial Neutrality?

For more than thirty years the Liberal Party has had a marked ascendancy in the Province of Quebec. The Liberal Party, in power or in opposition, has had a majority there since 1866. Who then is to come today a large proportion of the people of that province give ear to the Separatist and Nationalist doctrines of demagogues like Bourassa? Who prepared the soil for Bourassa's crop of Nationalism? Nor have Liberal leaders in Quebec since the beginning of the war risen to their duties and responsibilities as leaders of their people. It is true that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has spoken at two or three meetings, and if for no other reason than political safety in the rest of Canada, probably seeks to bring his Quebec lieutenants to an appearance of more just appreciation of the responsibilities of the moment, but from none of them, with one or two exceptions, has been given support. On the contrary it is a notorious and disturbing fact that in the last provincial election the Gouin ed but he has accomplished results exceeding his own estimates. In the case of the war loans he has been offered two dollars for every one that he asked.

Sir Thomas White has displayed a profound confidence in the patriotism of the Canadian people, and he has not been disappointed.

The Canadian people have displayed as great a confidence in the ability of the Finance Minister to make the most of the country's war resources, and to spend wisely, and they have not been disappointed. In making statements the Minister has, in the case of this loan as in the case of the former, given first consideration to the small subscriber. In other words, these are in the true sense, the people's loans. Fifty millions of dollars were offered by the great banking institutions of the country, but so great has been the response of the smaller subscribers that none of the bonds will go to the banks. Instead a new Imperial credit has been established equal to the amount which the banks offered for the loan.

It is a proud chapter in the history of the war. Great things are being done by Canadians at home.

At the rate the members of the Liberal Government of Saskatchewan are going to fall there will soon be very few left to run the country. And now on top of this comes the announcement that Hon. Walter Scott, leader of the government in Saskatchewan, has a heart ailment and is owing to ill health. Surely it is time for a change in Saskatchewan.

Liberal papers do not profess to think there will be a provincial election soon, but the Ministers are very busy, and that is a good sign. Hon. Charles Cross has been visiting North-west and other parts in his constituency, and the government heeds are busy in every corner of the province. Red Deer has had several visits from suspicious looking government employees, who could only be here on some such business as an election which leads one to think the Government will spring an election on the people on the shortest possible notice and give the electors the shortest possible time to discuss the issues before polling day.

THE DIGNITY OF A JUDGE

(Hamilton Herald)

It appears that a judge, even when he is earning extra pay by serving as a commissioner in a political investigation springing out of party warfare, can insult witnesses, use violent language, yell, pound the desk with his fists, and behave generally in anything but a dignified manner, and if anybody else does these things and expresses the opinion that it is not seemly so to do, that person is to jail and make him a fine of several hundred dollars. Somehow it doesn't seem fair.

WILD WEST SHOW AT WINNIPEG

(Toronto Telegram)

At this distance from Winnipeg a public journal may safely remark that a place in the judiciary of a free country is no fit abode for a jurist who imagines that he is enfranchised with the right to set aside the safeguards with which centuries of sacrifice have surrounded the liberty of the subject. British subject.

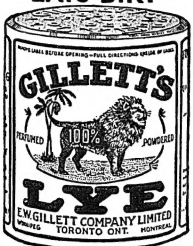

The worst enemies of Hon. Justice Galt were his lordship's own actions of outrage on British liberty. British law has no more warrants, the sentences imposed by Hon. Justice Galt than American law warrants the sentences executed by Kentucky feudists. What is to become of British liberty if every judge is free to cut loose, "shoot up" the lawbreakers of law, fill the hides of his enemies with sentences of fine and imprisonment, unauthorized by an unprejudiced jury and an impartial jury?

DIDSBURY WILL DO IT

Didsbury constituency is going to "do it." It is in this case the raising of the $12,000,000 asked from that constituency for the South Alberta Patriotic Fund for 1916-17—and then some more if the enthusiasm shown by the Didsbury people is any indication. Fifteen leaders of that constituency met in the office of the Secretary of the South Alberta Branch at Calgary on Friday, September 29th and decided to form a Central Committee with the following officers:—Honorary President, J. E. Stauffer, M.L.A.; President W. R. Freeman, M.L.A.; Vice-President, H. E. Osmond, Didsbury; Secretary, A. H. Gibson, Drumheller. The Executive Committee will consist of the presidents of all local branches and it was decided to meet three times a year, viz. on the third Friday of December, March and June.

Amounts will be allotted to the different districts in the constituency covering the entire amount asked for, and the utmost enthusiasm was evidenced by these present. The action of Didsbury constituency in organizing its own central committee and placing its work on a business basis is one which will undoubtedly place that district among the leaders in the new campaign. These present members of the meeting were Messrs. B. L. McMullen, W. R. Cumming, A. H. Gibson, Drumheller; H. E. Osmond, D. H. Marshall, E. E. Freeman, W. A. Austin, Didsbury; E. H. Haley, J. G. LaFrance, Acme; G. McNab, Three Hills; D. P. Hays, Carleton Place; H. Van Wart, P. W. Granger, Granger; J. W. Baird, Carleton Place; J. E. Stauffer, M.L.A., and T. M. Tweedie, M.L.A., President, South Alberta Branch.

A DOCTOR FOR ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE (The Guide)

As we briefly stated last week, an interim license will be granted to Dr. Millar, M.D., to enable him to practice in Alberta outside of a radius of 20 miles of a registered M.D. The struggle he has won a long and stern one, but thanks to Mr. Kirby the battle has been won, and in the near future we hope to see Dr. Millar firmly established in the village and ready for any emergency.

CLAY'S INDIAN AT PUSKOKA

The Pusokoka Herald says: An Indian entered the town clerk's office the other morning and exclaimed: "Me uray in head, killed man in Manitoba. Feet smell coming again and want to kill another." No need to explain the clerk's feelings, sufficient to say the Indian was placed in custody by a J.P. and given thirty days for vagrancy at Fort Saskatchewan, after which, in all probability, he will be taken to Brandon, from whence he came.

A BIG BUNCH OF SHEEP

The Herald Bulletin says:—Fifteen thousand of George Lay's sheep crossed the Stoveville ferry south bound, last week. Ferryman Shaw took them across, 200 in a trip, and it was a two-day job. The stevedores nearly put him out of a job for keeps and he don't want to see any more sheep for a while.

Sandy McTavish Had His Revenge

Chicago, Oct. 11.—Strains of "God Save the King" played by a German band in a German saloon, last night gave pleasure to Sandy McTavish, a Scotchman from Canada, if to no one else in the crowd. He had hired the band in revenge for having previously been ejected from the saloon. When McTavish first dropped into the saloon, which is on South Clark street, some Germans were toasting Captain Hans Rose of the saloon, the F-53. The Scotchman refused to drink the toast.

"My name's McTavish—Sandy McTavish—'ow' Sandy they call me, and I'll give you a toast," he shouted. "Here's to King George."
It took five Germans and the porter to get Sandy out of the saloon. Two hours later he was back with the little German street band and led it into the saloon. The musicians times before the Germans recognized played the British national air for it. After that it was the street for Sandy and his band.

Sub Activities Along Coasts to be Stopped

Washington, Oct. 14.—The joint state and navy neutrality board has submitted to the state department its report and recommendations concerning submarine warfare of the United States coast. It is understood that the findings of the board are unfavorable to continuance by Germany of activities similar to those of Nantucket lightship last Sunday, when the 1-53 sank four merchantmen.

It is understood that the neutrality board declared such operations in close proximity to United States shores constituted a nuisance, which should be abated, and that in that view the United States should refuse hospitality to all belligerent war vessels.

Baptist Church Notices

First Baptist Church, Rev. L. E. Brough, Pastor, Parsonage 30-5th Street N.E. Services on Sunday conducted by the Pastor. Morning subject "Christian Perfection." Any Christian who care to investigate this subject are cordially invited to hear this sermon. The Pastor will give his second talk to the boys and girls on "Keeping House in the Heart." Evening subject "A Three-fold Invitation." Sunday School at the close of morning service. You are invited to all these services.

Rev. L. E. Brough is giving a series of four short talks to the boys and girls on "Keeping House in the Heart." These talks are given at the morning service. Next Sunday morning he will give the second of them. All boys and girls are invited. The Pastor of the Baptist Church was reading the church notices of last Sunday in the Calgary church, and noticed what was to him a subject of importance. One minister preached last Sunday on the question, "Is the Prayer Meeting 'Saturated' and must it be relegated to the Scrap Heap?" If this is so then the church members are responsible. There will be no prayer meeting to night in the Baptist Church. If you as a member can go and don't go—then you as much as say "let the prayer meeting go to the scrap heap!" Rev. L. E. Brough will entertain the boys class of the Sunday school on Friday evening of this week at his home 30-5th St. N.E.

As a preparatory announcement this notice is inserted stating that Rev. J. A. Huntley, of First Baptist church will be the speaker at the Baptist church on the anniversary services on Sunday, November 5th. A treat is in store for the people of Red Deer.

The Anniversary Supper of the Baptist church will be held through the courtesy of the Methodists in the basement of their church on the evening of Monday, November 6th. More particulars will be published later. Keep that evening free.

Mistake To Worry About War Policy After Peace Comes

Greatest Concern Should Be Over Militarism—While The War Is On

Montreal, Oct. 14.—Declaring that it was a mistake to worry about what might be the war policy of any nation after the war, Hon. Arthur Meighen, solicitor general, speaking at the Westmount Canadian club monthly dinner last night, said: "I do not worry about militarism when the war ends. What concerns me is a little militarism while the war is on." The speaker insisted that Canadians and Britishers should not spare an ounce of energy for anything else than prosecuting to a triumphant conclusion the war against the nation which will be in the spirit best exemplified by the words of Maxymilian Harden: "Not against our will nor as a nation taken by surprise did we hurl ourselves into this gigantic venture. We will do it; we had to do it. We do not stand before the judgement seat of Europe. We acknowledge no such jurisdiction. Our might shall create a new law in Europe. It is Germany that speaks."

Caustic Remarks Anent Union by Red Deer Divine

Smites Union Hip and Thigh for Alleged Malpractices

Saskatoon, Oct. 14.—A meeting of the advocates of non-union was held in St. Thomas Presbyterian church last evening, when some very caustic and sensational remarks were made by Rev. W. G. Brown, D.D., of Red Deer, Alta., who among other things intimated that the union committee reports were a "lie."

He also accused them of having stolen $25,000 from the home mission funds of the church to propagate their scheme of unionism, accused them of an attempt at wholesale plunder in an endeavor to seize college and church property for the purpose of establishing a new denomination; accused the union committee of having changed the findings of the general assembly; claimed that the union committee were dominated by a dozen college professors who were fed up on German nationalism; attempting to set up a despotic form of church government and the establishment of a papacy; characterized the action of the committee as tyrannical as a czar, and non-unionists into the union against their will.

Plummer Was Acquitted By Jury on a Murder Charge

Edmonton, Oct. 13.—Walter D. Pratt, Plummer, arrested on a charge of murdering Peter Lindsay, near Crispdale, Alberta, on October 3, 1916, was found not guilty in the supreme court today. Plummer admitted the shooting during his testimony, but maintained it was done in self-defense, and only after Lindsay had attacked him with a knife. The accused fled the country on the day of the tragedy, and was only recovered after a search extending over three years. He was located in Libby, Montana, by the mounted police, where he was masquerading under the name of Howard. The jury brought in a verdict after 20 minutes' deliberation.

Winter Won't Stop Offensive on West Front

No Sudden Collapse of German Lines Anticipated as Yet But as Advance Continues it Will Be Possible To Use Cavalry

London, Oct. 14.—Major General F. H. Maurice, British chief director of military operations, emphasized in an interview yesterday the fact that the present fighting in France constitutes a race between German trench digging capacity and allied power to advance. Pointing to one of the wonderful maps which the British staff is all the time producing, he compared the great maze of trenches around Thiepval with the narrow line representing German fortifications behind Bapaume.

"Every move we make we will find the obstacles opposed to us less severe, while our rate of progress becomes correspondingly quicker," he continued. "But I wish to emphasize the point that we are not anticipating any sudden collapse or break of the German line. We are aiming at a slow, deliberate, pushing movement, which all the time is increasing the length of the German line, making their problem of defence more difficult. Moreover, the time must soon arrive when the enemy's trenches will be three or four thousand yards apart; then the opportunity will come to use our cavalry."

"Winter will not stop the allied drive in the west. Fighting merely will be restricted according to the shortage of daylight," he said. "Don't forget that the French and Germans, in 1871, fought a battle at Bapaume in January."

"Nonetheless the advantage of ground on the western front has passed to the Germans," he continued. "This explains apparently the lull on the western front, although local activities by Haig and Joffre still keep the Germans on the jump."

"Our highest hope was the capture of Thiepval ridge," said the General. "This taken, we drove back the Germans until finally they were obliged to take up positions along the low ridge before Bapaume. We are fighting in the valley until we succeeded in gaining these heights overlooking Bapaume."

Speculation As To Location of Winter Billets

Lethbridge People Fear Their City Will Be Shy of Soldiers

While it has been announced that there will be no billeting of soldiers in small localities this winter as there was last, speculation is still rife as to what units will be left in Calgary and what Alberta points will be favored by the presence of the khaki-clads. At the present time there is great fear in the southern part of the province that Lethbridge is not to be a military city this coming winter. Within the past week the stores and some other equipment from the Lethbridge barracks have been brought to Calgary and the inference, of course, is that the southern city is going to be very much "out of luck."

Last winter the military authorities spent $20,000 in fitting up some of the buildings at the exhibition grounds and for several months these were utilized as training quarters for the soldiers. The barracks are still in good condition and the chances are that Lethbridge will put up a strong argument for a battalion there this winter.

It is altogether likely that the members of the 87th battery will be stationed there, but whether there will be other military residents remains to be seen. Rumor has had it that the 191st is to winter in Calgary, Medicine Hat and Lethbridge, but the chances are that Col. Bryan's men will remain in Calgary until they are moved overseas.

Heavy Fighting On Serb Front

London, Oct. 15.—Serious fighting occurred Saturday along the entire Serbian front, according to a Reuter despatch from Saloniki. The Bulgars were expelled from some of their trenches on the bank of the Cerna and Bulgarian counter attacks were repulsed.

Saloniki, Oct. 15.—British patrols yesterday came in contact with the Bulgarian forces on the railway south of Sere, in Greek Macedonia, says an official statement issued at headquarters of the entente allies today.

"Hiristo, the Sere station, and Bazarli Juma have been shelled by our artillery. On the railway south of Sere our patrols came in contact with hostile forces."

"Dolran front: Enemy communications were everywhere shelled during the night of October 14. Several encounters between patrolling detachments occurred. The bombardment continues heavy on both sides."

"Pog O' My Heart" at the Lyric Theatre, Monday, Oct. 23.

Greek Tars Relieved of Their Duties Upon Warships of Greece

London, Oct. 13.—"To-day was a sad day for the Greek tars, who are insufficiently acquainted with the politics to understand why they must abandon their ships to a foreign power," says Reuter's Athens correspondent.

"It was equally depressing for the Greek naval officers to watch for three hours this afternoon their ships being towed away by Allied tugs."

"The Allies took every precaution in case of resistance being offered. Russian battleships trained their guns on the cruiser Averoff and the battleships Kilkis and Lemnos, while French torpedo boats, ready for action, cruised to and fro."

NONE REMAINED

"The ceremony in the early morning of ordering the crews to pack their personal belongings and quit their ships, of which they were so proud, had been a touching incident. The king sent a message releasing every man who wished to remain with his ship and join the Allies. It is said that nobody remained."

"The ships' officers were the last to leave their vessels, taking with them their flags and the king's portrait, which had adorned every wardroom. Admiral Ipitis removed his flag to the Lemnos and shot himself up in the cabin while his fleet was being towed to the new anchorage. The aide de camp of Admiral Ipitis, pointing to the Allied warships, remarked as he watched the scene, 'what harm could we have done them?'"

A CONSPIRACY

London, Oct. 13.—According to the "Times" Athens correspondent, a conspiracy existed in Greece to effect the Greek fleet with anti-Entente sympathizers and to concentrate in Thessaly, in the rear of the Allies, arms, troops, guns, stores and material from Athens and elsewhere. The correspondent adds that the precautions, taken by the Allies, through an ultimatum to counteract the schemes caused no surprise in Athens.

U-BOAT GAVE NO WARNING

New York, Oct. 9.—Eighteen shots were fired at the British steamer Strathdene, one the vessels sunk by a German submarine off Nantuxet yesterday, before the thirty-three members of the crew had taken to the boats, according to Capt. Wilson, the Strathdene's commander, who was brought here today with his crew by the Uruguayan steamer P.L. M. No. 4.

"My ship was attacked without warning," declared Captain Wilson, after he had given a detailed statement of the incident to the British consul-general. "Thirteen shots were fired before we left the vessel. None of the shots, however, struck the ship until we had taken to the boats."

LATEST ATTEMPTED HORRORS OF GERMANS

Bucharest, via London, Oct. 9.—"An investigation made at the German legation," says an official statement issued today, "led to the discovery of numerous cases of trinitro-toluene buried in the garden of the legation, and of flagons labelled 'virus,' which was intended to propagate simultaneously an epidemic among men and horses."

"A representative of the United States legation witnessed the discovery. This new criminal German manoeuvre reveals preparations similar to others made in other countries. They were surprised by Roumania's entry into the war and the surveillance of the secret police."

The Old Cider Woman

A POOR old cider woman of long ago explained to her customers that she lost on every glass she sold, but made it up on the great number sold. Figure it out for yourself.

Now we feel sometimes like the old cider woman.

We lose on every subscription we take at a dollar a year, yet try to say to ourselves that we make it up on the large number of our subscribers.

A good weekly newspaper cannot be produced for $1.00 a year. $1.50 is the absolute minimum---and this only when the paper carries a goodly amount of advertising. On the advertiser is placed the burden of losses on subscriptions. This is no secret. Yet it is not right.

And so, to-day, the publishers of dailies and weeklies are trying to set things right---by raising the price of their papers to subscribers in order that no heavier load will be placed on the advertiser.

For the costs of publishing are going higher every year. And this higher cost must be collected from some source.

We believe that you are ready in your mind to pay more for your weekly newspaper. You know that in your own buying and selling, prices in scarcely anything remain 'fixed' year after year, as has the price of your weekly newspaper. You are paying more---very much more---for almost everything in common use.

We put it to you: Is it reasonable that the old dollar rate of the country weekly remain unchanged in the light of the costs of other manufactured products?

And in the confidence that you will agree that it is absolutely just to raise the subscription price of "THE NEWS," we announce that after this date the price of "THE NEWS" will be $1.50 a year to Canadian and British post offices; United States, $2.00; Army Post Office, London, England, $2.50 a year.

We are counting on you to fall into line with the necessities of the situation, and that you will agree with us when we say that three cents a week for "THE NEWS" is little enough when one figures out what it costs to produce it every week.

that's a "porterhouse" in reality, as well as in name—tender, juicy, fine flavored—can always be had at the Alberta Meat Market, first because it will be cut from a prime grade of beef, second because great care is taken in handling the meat, third because it's cut just exactly as a porterhouse should be cut. The Post Office staff have the sympathy of the people of Red Deer as they have suffered most severely through the war. Mr. Love has lost his son, Miss Walker's brother-in-law has been wounded. Mr. Edis' brother was wounded in a naval battle and last, but not least, Postmaster Wallace is just recovering from an attack of fever.

The International Harvester Company agent, who passed through Red Deer last week, stated that Whitey & Cotton, the young enterprise firm, of implement men had sold more implements during the past six months than had been sold at that point in the past four years. This speaks well for this firm and we can hardly expect otherwise because they are good advertisers and make their business known to the world.

Perhaps the most interesting of the many dramatic events promised for this season is the engagement of the United Producing Co.'s "Peg O' My Heart" with Dorothy La Vern in the title role, supported by a company of excellent all round ability. "Peg" was heartily greeted on its first appearance in Western Canada, and it is hardly necessary to mention that the play is clean and refreshing, with lots of comedy and pathos mingled in just the right proportions. The play is from the pen of J. Hartley Manners, and the United Producing Company have more than lived up to their promise of giving the success it is by their careful casting of each role and artistic stage production.

Only two more days of the big sale of furniture at N. White's.

WHERE "ANZAC" DERIVED

Many newspaper readers have wondered where the troops from the Antipodes came by their popular nickname of "Anzac." Reference works have been ransacked and shedding any illumination on the mystery, but an explanation is forthcoming. In the introduction to the volume bearing the title of "The Anzac Book," Lieutenant Sir W. R. Birdwood says, that the appellation of "Anzac" was an arbitrary one in its origin. "When I took the command of the Australian and New Zealand Army Corps," explains Gen. Birdwood, "in Egypt, I was asked to select a telegraphic code address for my army corps, and then adopted the word 'Anzac.' This code word was popularized when Gen. Birdwood, after landing his forces at Gallipoli, named the beach whereon they debarked 'Anzac Cove.'"

THEATRES VS. ZEPPELINS

How Some English Crowds Behave When Monsters Threaten

A theatrical manager says: "I was present at the first London Zeppelin raid. The first alarm was about 10.15 p.m. Provincial theatres are out by that hour, but few get out so early in the Metropolitan. At one theatre, however, the performance was over and the audience was out, but the artists were still in the dressing rooms. The guns and the booming could be heard everywhere. Most of the artists and stage employees flew down underneath the stage. The leading lady was on her knees praying, some were calm, many frightened, but to me the funny part of it was the gentleman who played the hero, the one who walks about protecting the heroine and defying the villain, seemed to be the only really terrified one. His teeth were literally chattering. At another theatre not many yards away the last act was being played. The actresses and actors went on with the play as if there were no Zeppelins. In the world—yet there was one always overhead. I saw it. Above all, the principal lady there speaking her part and showed not the slightest tremor. No panic! In South London a lady of my acquaintance was in theatre doing some business, and was hurried down a flight of stone steps, and many tumbled over her in haste for the doors. She told me the men seemed more frightened than the women."

During one raid George Robey was playing the principal part at the Theatre Royal, Manchester. War had come that the Zepps were on their way and that the electric light was to be turned off at headquarters. The management requested Robey to tell the audience the news and to ask them to leave the theatre quietly as the Zepps had already reached Sheffield en route for Manchester. The audience treated this as one of George's games (he is ever gagging) and laughed uproariously at the suggestion. "It was not a convincing one, and it was not until the manager himself came on and announced it was no joke, that the audience then dispersed in a quiet, orderly and sensible manner. No casualties!"

NEW ECONOMIC ENTENTE

Alliance For Peace Against Inroads of Hun

"The political re-modelling which will follow after the war should be accompanied by a veritable economic revolution," writes Raphael-Georges Levy, member of the French Institute. "The Allies will no longer be fool enough to leave the greater part of their commerce in the hands of the enemy. They have discovered that they can supply each other mutually with all raw materials and manufactured goods which they formerly received from Germany and Austria. They know that the 800 million human beings who inhabit France, England, Russia, Japan, Belgium, and Serbia with their colonies form an immense field of consumers, capable of absorbing the entire production of the Allies."

"It will be a difficult and exceedingly laborious task to arrange their future custom policy, but this work will be insignificant in comparison with the combined effort they are now making on land and sea. The essential thing will be to approach this part of our common task in a broad-minded and liberal manner and always keep the goal in sight which must be reached to seal the military compact, concluded in the fact of the German danger, by a close and definitive economic entente. In the field too, as on the battlefield we are sure of victory."

NIVEN THE STEADFAST

Grand Work of Patricia's and Leader at Ypres

Reference to the famous little Hugh Niven of London, Ont., and Calgary is made in connection with the Third Battle of Ypres, as follows: A company commander, Captain Hugh Niven, who, although already twice wounded, was still full of valor and resolution, gathered the remainder of his men together, some seventy rifles in all and two machine guns, and, hidden behind sandbags, awaited the foe in silence. The order was given: "Not a man must shoot until I give the signal!" Apparently the Boche was taken unawares. The volley which blazed forth was reminiscent of the immortal front rank fire of Lascelles' Regiment on the Heights at Quebec.

One stalwart French-Canadian, Arsenes by name, who had often faced the wild snails in the backwoods burning with ardor, could not be restrained from leaping up on the improvised machine gun and, with his rifle, before the enemy could recover from his astonishment. His captain tells me that no fewer than eight Germans fell in this man's marksmanship alone in that swift encounter.

When it was over, at least one hundred of the enemy lay on the ground. Afterwards the officer mentioned shepherded his men into a section of trench, he himself spending the whole of the evening night parabolizing the trench, directing defences, ministering to and encouraging the troops.

"I felt I ought to be on deck as long as I could crawl." It was still giving orders when the stretcher-bearers lifted him out and bore him away to the field hospital.

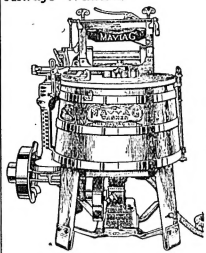

Spies may go peeping round forts, but they cannot measure the soul of a people.—Rev. C. J. Proctor.

Here is the Most Practical Washing Machine Made—Exactly What You Have Always Wanted.

The Maytag Multi-Motor Washer

Complete with Engine and Swinging Wringer

It is equipped with a light, powerful, compact little engine, that does all the hard work of washing and wringing, and does a bigger, better, and clearer washing in an hour or two than you can possibly do with a wash board and tub in a day's time. This Washer takes up no more room than an ordinary wash tub and can be used in the kitchen, laundry, dining room, on the porch or out in the yard. It requires no belts, chains or pulleys, no electricity or water power and no waiting for the men to bring their engine from the barn. Besides running the washer and wringer, the machine is equipped with pulleys so you can operate other small machinery such as churn, sewing machine, food chopper or anything else that does not require more than one-half horse power. The MAYTAG MULTI-MOTOR WASHER is splendidly made of the best material and is guaranteed against defects for a period of three years and this warranty covers the washer, wringer and engine. This is not an ordinary washing machine, but something new, with exclusive patented features that no other washer has or can have. WASHTAY, and that is WORK-DAY, changed into PLAY-DAY. Good-bye backache, headache, nerve week! No woman need bend over the wash tub as her grandmother did, nor turn the old-style washer as her mother did, if she has a MAYTAG MULTI-MOTOR.

Nearly FIVE HUNDRED of the Wide Awake, Up-to-date, Progressive Hardware and Implement Dealers in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta are selling this machine.

Mountain Blocks Wireless

Wireless operators on board vessels stationed west of Cape Owyah, at the southern point of Australia, have observed repeatedly that it was impossible to communicate with vessels situated in the port of Melbourne. This is supposed to be due to the fact that the mountain, which forms the cape, contains large quantities of minerals, which absorb the electric waves.
